NOTES:

Defense informed the Court that he received consent from Mr. Arriola's client to lift the stay away order and to allow his client to live with co-defendant Jessica Mesa. The Government did not have any objection to Defendant's release, however, requested that Defendant reside at a fixed address. The Court continued detention pending Mr. Yanza receiving consent from Ms. Mesa's parents to reside in their home and the probation's report that electronic monitoring is possible.
